

A TWELVE-WEEK STUDY IN EPHESIANS

“My soul clings to the dust” is the truest prayer most of us know how to pray.

We do not come to Scripture as the strong and the settled. We come as the dusty and the weary — and Ephesians is the letter written for exactly that condition. It says outright that you were dead in trespasses and sins, answers that verdict with two of the most important words in the Bible, and does not leave you where it found you.

Over twelve weeks, this study walks through Ephesians a passage at a time in the Soul Dust Revival format: a reflective essay, the passage itself, searching questions with room to answer, sixty Greek word studies, application for the ordinary places you actually live, and a benediction to lift your eyes.

EACH WEEK INCLUDES

- ◆ A Scripture Study essay
- ◆ The full passage, and five verses to work through
- ◆ Five Greek word studies with a “Live It” response
- ◆ Life application for home, work, and the church
- ◆ A “Lift Up Your Eyes” benediction
